

VOCABULARIES OF TIME

Kairotic

The crisis of the observer: emotional bulimia

The clattering sounds of reindeers' hoofs

The tyranny of the immediate

Strategies to stay in time

The temporal is intersectional

Clocks make us stupid

Design for reflection, design for retelling

Design creates speed

Chronotopes

Chronodystopia

The graceful aging of personal data

Acts of imagination rather than acts of estimation

To punctualize the past

We disturb time

To disrupt we have to desynchronize

Tuesday will take care of itself

–Sus Lundgren

Design workshop in Edinburgh May 28-29 2014)*
